

Small town. Big difference.

GEORGIA CITIES WEEK April 24-30 , 2022

WHEREAS, the City of Lilburn was one of the first Gwinnett County cities to develop as population growth spread from Atlanta, incorporated in 1910 and named for Lilburn Trigg Myers, the railroad superintendent for the Seaboard Air Line Railway; and

WHEREAS, the City of Lilburn is a wonderfully diverse city of 14,502 residents that embraces a world-class culture with small-town sensibilities, anchored by its City Park and Old Town district, our nucleus for events, dining, shopping, relaxing and exercising; and

WHEREAS, residents of the City of Lilburn enjoy superior city services including Police, Municipal Court, Public Works, Planning, Business Services, and Administration; and

WHEREAS, the City of Lilburn and other Georgia cities provide elevated levels of service that impact lives and generally rate higher than any other level of government; and

WHEREAS, the City of Lilburn recognizes and appreciates the Georgia Municipal Association's effort to raise public awareness about the roles of cities in enhancing the quality of life of communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Tim Dunn, Mayor of the City of Lilburn, do hereby proclaim the week of April 24-30 "Georgia Cities Week" in Lilburn, Georgia.

I witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Lilburn to be affixed this 11 day of April in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.

DATED this the 11th day of April, 2022.

Tim Dunn
Mayor
